

International Small Companies Hold Conference in Brazil

Contributed by Newsroom
Monday, 27 March 2006

The International Conference on Financing Entrepreneurship and the Growth of Small and Medium Enterprises, which starts this Monday, March 27, and follows through until Thursday in Brazilian capital city Brasilia, will count on lectures, debates and workshops on the theme.

The conference will have the presence of president Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva, of the Brazilian Minister of Development, Industry and Foreign Trade, Luiz Fernando Furlan, and ministers of Turkey, Venezuela, Kuwait, Cameroon, Argentina, Mexico, Poland and Spain, as well as other Brazilian officials.

Today, the president of the Organization for Small and Medium Enterprises of Japan, Takao Suzuki, will hold a talk on the expectations of the Conference, which was jointly organized with Organisation for Cooperation and Economic Development and by the Ministry of Development, Industry and Foreign Trade of Brazil.

Anba