

Brazil Steps on Minefield Putting a Price on Dead and Disappeared

Contributed by Fabrício Ofugi
Sunday, 05 December 2004

In 2001 the Brazilian government set up a Special Commission on Deaths and Disappearances, which investigates occurrences during the military dictatorship (1964-85) in which people were killed or disappeared.